

Don't put your skis and boards away this summer!

Plan to spend your summer vacation enjoying the best snow and culture from Chile, riding one of the world's most impressive mountain ranges: The Andes.

Just one hour away from the airport and with direct flights from the USA, the main ski areas of the Chilean Central Andes are easily accessible. Here you can enjoy fresh snow, good food and be part of this very special and remote place.

Chile is a country of vast mountains and volcanoes, where scenic beauty plus some amazing snow conditions will make of your visit an unforgettable experience. Chile is one of the safest countries in South America, thanks to its stable economy. The country's natural beauty has helped boost tourism over the past few years.

In the winter, this is the gathering point for European and North American alpine ski teams, as well as skiers and riders from around the world that are looking for the best freeriding and skiing in South America. Known for its big, steep mountains and its snow safety, Chile has been chosen as the first stop of the Subaru Freeskiing World Tour.

Chile Backcountry is a group of professionals and well known sportsmen in different disciplines of outdoor sports, as well as lovers of natural life and of the many experiences and activities that the outdoors can offer. Our team has years of experience in Chile and abroad.

Chile Backcountry invites you to enjoy our tours and trips from 1 to 20 days long that could take you from the different ski areas of the central zone to skiing the volcanoes in the south. We also offer you the flexibility of customizing your trip depending on your interests and timeframe.

At Chile Backcountry we know from the experience of each member of our team, that professionalism, responsibility and worrying about each detail makes these outdoor experiences different and the achievement of our goals successful.

10 day trips starting at $2,900

More Information: www.chilebackcountry.com

Mail: info@chilebackcountry.com